

We Remember every Christmas

Rosa Villar-Córdova Scott

$\text{♩} = 120$

It is the Love of God that came to dwell with us. On Christ-mas morn a child was born to bring us peace. He shows us how to bear our cross-es day by day.

In Him all pain be-comes our gain. In Him our tears - turn to joy! And we remem-ber ev'-ry Christ-mas how God did love so much the world; that He gave His on-ly Son, that in Him we may be one. Here in a man-ger laid the King who was a babe cry for our faults; for our hearts so cold, that could not see the pro-mise-ses - foretold. And to his hum-ble crèche, he calls us: 'come and rest'. He brings the truth we must share and give; to a world that thirsts, for him, to live! And we re- mem- ber ev'- ry

38
Voi.

43
Voi.

Christ-mas how God did love so much the world; that He gave His on- ly Son, that in 48

Voi.

Him we may be one. And we re- Him we may have life!